

Terry Carlyle, DDS, MSc

Edmonton, CAN

Is a member of, and served as an executive member in many orthodontic and dental associations including the Canadian Association of Orthodontists, Canadian Dental Association, American Association of Orthodontists, American Association of Dental Sleep Medicine, Academy of Laser Dentistry, American Cleft Palate – Craniofacial Association, Pacific Coast Society of Orthodontics, Alberta Dental Association & College, Alberta Society of Dental Specialists, and Parkland Orthodontic Study Club.

Fellowships: Royal College of Dentists of Canada, International College of Dentists, Academy of Dentistry International.

Assistant Clinical Professor in orthodontics, University of Alberta faculty of Dentistry/Medicine and Visiting Professor in orthodontics University of Manitoba faculty of Dentistry/Medicine.

Recognized lecturer lectures on orthodontics and practice management to colleagues throughout Canada, the United States and England. He has published four papers and abstracts relating to overbite correction and stability, bonding and most recently treatment mechanics with the Damon System.

Has published articles in a variety of peer-reviewed professional publications as well as major contributor to the College of Alberta Dental Assistants Revised Orthodontic Module (2007) for dental assistant training in clinical orthodontics.

Special interest in sleep disordered breathing issues and laser assisted procedures in orthodontics.